

Name: _____

You Are Special

Teacher instructions: Make a copy of this worksheet for each student. Ask the students to write their name in the first sentence. Then, have the students randomly exchange the sheet with someone in class. Each student then writes three things that are special about the student named in the first sentence. Have the students return their writings to the student they wrote about. Invite students to share the things that make them special.

_____ is a very special person.

Below are three things that make this person special.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

